UNTO THE STARS

A HALO SHORT

NOTE: hey guys this are not part of my new best sellign series Halo: Reaching for BR but it is jus a short story that I wantid to make. It is very emoshinally deep and I belief it will touch your hearts and souls. I hope you like it.

"I wunder what its like up their..." The solder thought to himself as he was sittign in the space ship. This was the first time he went in a spacey ship to go to ouder space. the ship blastered off.

He unlockded his seat belt and he looked out the window into the spase outsied. It intreeged him and he was like "Wow it looks cool out thar mayb some day I can take my old frends to spase with me."

He stepped over to a spase pod and before he went insied their was a girl that told him "This guy are sick." So he went insied to take a look.

The guy was sittign down in the spase pod and looked at the guy. "What is rong with him?" He asked the ladie. She said "He are turning to a Flood zobmie and we are gonna half to launch him out of this spase pod into ouder spase." She went to te pod door and askd the solder, "i have to go. Plese press this button when you are done visitng him and it will ejet hit into ouder spase. Good bye." The solder said nothig, but just looked off into spase. Perhapps WE are the monstars, he thinked.

That nite, the solder had many nitemares come to him. All of a suddin, alarm went off in the spacey ship. The solder awaked and jumped out of the bed and went to see wat was rong. He saw trales of blood and dead peple too. He remembared somethig.. "No.. I forgetted to press the button!" He worded with horrer.

Sudenly, he was grabed from the back and stabbed many time by a flood monstar. "Tis the fate of a solder in ouder spase" he say to himself and then he dyed without sayin nothing.

THE END
